Famous Firsts:

The Kentucky Derby

On May 17, 1875, a crowd of 10,000 people entered the gates at Churchill Downs, a new racetrack in Louisville, Ky. They cheered on the 15 thoroughbreds that raced in what was the inaugural Kentucky Derby, and Aristides came out the winning colt. The annual Derby, called the "greatest two minutes in sports," is America's longest-running sporting event.

Salute America's Military

In May, America observes Armed Forces Day, Memorial Day, National Military Appreciation Month and Military Spouse Appreciation Day. Take the time this month to honor the men and women in uniform, past and present, and their families.

Celebrating Moms

Greeting cards, flowers and restaurant outings are the top three most popular purchases for Mother's Day gifts. According to the National Retail Federation, U.S. consumers spend about $24 billion celebrating the moms in their lives.

Celebrating Life's Stories

Please join us in celebrating this week of "tribute to life's most significant events, relationships and experiences that shape the unique perspectives of residents, families, staff, and volunteers in long term and post-acute care."

Check activities calendar for events.

Trivia Whiz

Burgers Across America

An American classic, the hamburger has countless variations. See how it's served up across the U.S.

California. Burgers with bacon and avocado slices or guacamole are on the menu in the Golden State, where most of the nation's avocados are grown.

Wisconsin. The state known for its dairy products lays claim to the butter burger, invented in the 1930s and named for the pat of butter that's added to the top of a cooked beef patty.

San Antonio. Bean burgers—piled with refried beans, cheese sauce, diced onions and Fritos corn chips—are a specialty in this Texas city.

North Carolina. Hamburgers slathered in chili, coleslaw and mustard are a comfort food in this state and throughout the Southeast.
