Trivia Whiz

A Thanksgiving Tradition

The Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade in New York City has been a holiday tradition since 1924.

Along with floats, brass bands and entertainers, the early parades included animals from the Central Park Zoo.

Giant helium balloons replaced the live animals in 1927. Felix the Cat, a dinosaur and a dog were among the first characters.

The parade was halted for three years during World War II, and Macy's donated 650 pounds of balloon rubber to the war effort.

There are more than 8,000 parade participants.

Around 3.5 million people line the city streets to watch the parade, and about 50 million watch on TV.

Walk to End Alzheimer's

A great BIG Thank You for everyone's participation in this year's Walk to End Alzheimer's fundraiser. We exceeded our goal and raised a total of $3,940!

Winter Weather Folklore

Meteorologists use the latest technology to forecast the weather, but some people look to signs in nature to predict the upcoming season. Cozy up to some winter weather folklore and see how many you've heard.

Woolly worms. The bodies of these fuzzy caterpillars have black bands at both ends and an orange band in the

Five County Fair Winners

10 of our residents entered their artwork into the Five County Fair, a few of our residents placed. A BIG CONGRATULATIONS goes out to:

middle. According to legend, if the orange band is wide, it means the winter will be mild; a narrow band indicates it will be harsh.

Squirrels. If squirrels are seen frantically gathering nuts earlier than usual, it's believed they are preparing for severe winter weather. Thick, bushy tails on squirrels may also forecast a cold season ahead.

Acorns. An abundance of acorns dropping from trees, as well as extra-thick acorn shells, are said to be signs of frigid temperatures to come.

Persimmon seeds. Cut open this fruit, and if the seed inside is shaped like a spoon, it represents a shovel for heavy, wet snow. A fork shape indicates a mild season with light, powdery snow, and a knife shape means cutting winds are on the way.
