Irish Luck

Memorable Melody: 'When Irish Eyes Are Smiling'

This beloved musical tribute to the Emerald Isle was written by three Americans in 1912, at a time when Irish ballads were enormously popular in the U.S. Chauncey Olcott, George Graff Jr. and Ernest Ball wrote the song for the Broadway play "The Isle O' Dreams," and its lighthearted lyrics and catchy melody appealed to audiences. Along with becoming a St. Patrick's Day standard, the tune has been featured in dozens of Irish-themed films and TV shows.

Holly Manor

Flora Grant, Woodland Resident for over 14 years.

"For the last 14 years, The Woodland has been a wonderful home to me. I love that they offer many activities, but my favorite is getting to play cards with my friends."

Celebrating Our Past, Building Your Future

The Woodland, starting with a simple 60 bed nursing facility, now includes long-term, assisted-living, independent living cottages, memory care, and a state-of-the-art rehabilitation facility and wellness center.

Holly Manor 2020

Bessie Ransome, Woodland Resident for 16 years.

"I love feeling safe and secure at home, knowing help is right around the corner. I enjoy everything The Woodland Community does for us."

Sharon McAbee, over 35 years

“Over the years, it has been great to witness the founders’ vision of The Woodland grow to what it is today. What they started still continues, and that is a testament to a company and it’s employees.”

Hazel Hill, over 33 years

“I really enjoy talking with our patients and getting to know them during their time at The Woodland.”

Judy Witt, over 33 years

“I have always loved making the residents happy while working with them here at The Woodland. There is nothing like seeing the smiles on their faces.”

Wit & Wisdom

“Great art picks up where nature ends.”
—Marc Chagall

“In the mind of every artist there is a masterpiece.”
—Kai Greene

“Art evokes the mystery without which the world would not exist.”
—René Magritte

“Sometimes with art, it is important just to look.”
—Marina Abramovic

“When I think of art I think of beauty. Beauty is the mystery of life.”
—Agnes Martin

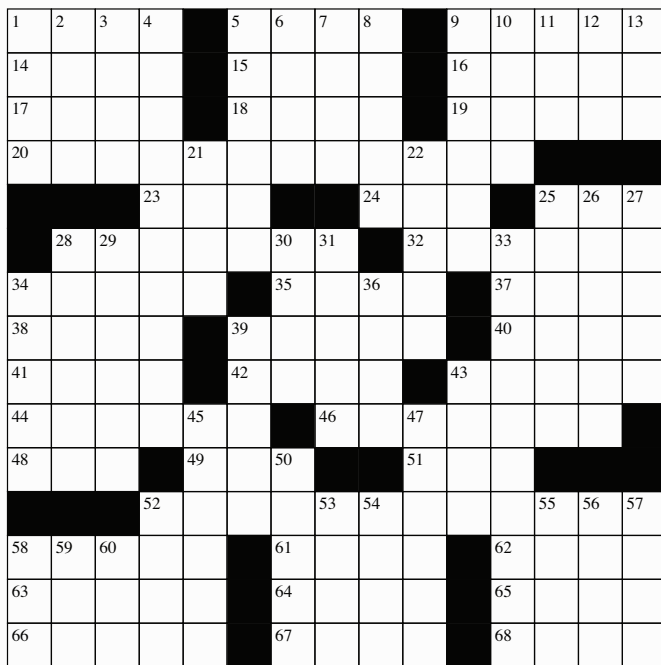

“If art doesn’t make us better, then what on earth is it for?”
—Alice Walker

“The artist is not a different kind of person, but every person is a different kind of artist.”
—Eric Gill
